Dear Mr. Dulles:

I would like to take this opportunity to bring to your attention a recent outstanding performance of duty rendered by Colonel [redacted] USAF, who is assigned to my staff in liaison capacity.

You will recall our conversations in Washington concerning the matter of counter-subversion and that Colonel [redacted] had represented CINCPAC at such a meeting in [redacted]. As I told you at that time, I had specifically selected Colonel [redacted] for this representation due to the confidence that I have in his good judgment, loyalty and professional ability. Certain happenings, both during and after the conference, were brought to your attention and discussed between us. At that time I set forth the confidence and trust in which I held Colonel [redacted] and further expressed the sincere hope that the controversies then ensuing over countersubversion would in no way reflect upon his splendid record.

During the [redacted] conference just concluded at [redacted] [redacted], I utilized with his consent the services of Colonel [redacted] as [redacted] for the conference proceedings. Needless to say, Colonel [redacted] performed this task in a highly commendable manner. His ability, energy, professional qualifications, personal characteristics, and affable manner played a large part in gaining the confidence and securing the cooperation of the visiting delegations. His efforts were a major contribution to the success of the conference and it is a pleasure to have such a splendid officer representing your agency on duty with my headquarters.

Assuring you of my personal best wishes and the high esteem with which I hold you and your office, I am,

Sincerely,

(signed)

Dear C. D.:

As I mentioned to you the other evening, I have read with the greatest interest your note of 2 June 1955 on the situation at FEC. In general I am in accord with your findings and conclusions. Now the problem is out, we can move to correct this situation.

I hope to be in New York on Monday and shall give you a call.

Sincerely,

/s/ A. W. D.
